GOOD NEWS FOR THE JET SET

A series of four classes in international sign language will be offered beginning March 25, in room 251 of Hall Memorial Building.

On April 3, a similar but more intensive course for interpreters will begin. This eight to 12 week program is planned to assist those persons who will be involved in the World Congress of the Deaf. The course will be held on Thursdays from 3-4 p.m. in room 251, HMB.

Yerker Andersson will teach both classes. Inquiries should be directed to Yerker Andersson or Rex Lowman.

DANCERS CELEBRATE 20TH ANNIVERSARY

The Gallaudet Dancers, who are celebrating their 20th year, will be giving a special recital on Sunday, March 23, at 2 p.m. in the Auditorium.

Directed by Peter Wisher, the group has most recently performed at the national convention of the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation in Atlantic City.

Tickets, which are $2 for general admission and $1 for students, children and senior citizens, can be purchased at the door.

AROUND AND ABOUT

--The Student Union needs several electric can openers to use for a recycling drive during the week of April 7th. If you could lend yours, please call Gina Mullen at ext. 629.

--Registration for courses offered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Graduate School will be March 24-29.

High school or college graduation is not a prerequisite for many of the courses. Please contact Bonnie Muller at ext. 581 for details.

--The sisters of Phi Kappa Zeta Sorority had a very successful bazaar on March 1, clearing $2200. The school for the deaf in the Philippines will receive $1000, and $500 will be donated to the library of the Maryland School for the Deaf, Columbia campus.

--A Northeast States Community Education Conference for people serving the deaf was held in New York City at the end of February. Hosted by the Lexington School for the Deaf, the conference was co-sponsored by the Gallaudet College Community Education Center and the Consortium of Northeast University Community Education Development Centers. The next conference will be held in Roanoke, Va., April 13-15. Anyone wishing more information, contact Jim Cox in Continuing Education.

--If you need information about foundations in preparing proposals for funding a project or program, the Office of Development may be able to assist you. In cooperation with the Office of the Associate Dean for Research and the Edward Miner Gallaudet Library, the Office of Development has become a member of the associates program of The Foundation Center. Computer searches can be arranged through The Foundation Center. For details, contact the Office of Development.
